Consent for Treatment

Please read carefully

This is to certify that I give permission to Heartwood Family Therapy for my participation in therapy. I am aware that therapy is a collaborative process and results are based not only on my therapist's practice, but also on my ongoing efforts outside therapy. Homework may be assigned in order to help facilitate therapy outside the 50 minute sessions.

Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____ Age: _____

I. Fees and Appointments

1. Appointments are approximately 50 minutes, and ordinarily take place one time per week or as necessary. Your family/child's specific hour is held by their counselor from week to week. If you are unable to keep an appointment, please contact your therapist directly to cancel as soon as possible.
2. During your initial appointment you will be assigned a fee for your weekly sessions. We ask that you pay at the beginning of each session on a weekly basis. Heartwood Family Therapy reserves the right to suspend therapy for services rendered and not paid for after two sessions.
3. You will be allowed to cancel four sessions within a one year period with no charge, as long as you have canceled your appointment prior to the 48 hours before the appointment. The year begins on the date of your Intake Appointment. After four canceled appointments you will be responsible for payment of missed sessions. If you are able to reschedule your appointment within five working days, it will not count as a cancellation.
4. If you miss an appointment and have not contacted your counselor prior to the missed appointment, it will not be considered one of your four cancellations and you will be charged for that "no show" appointment.
5. Fees can be paid via cash, check or credit card. Payment is expected at each session unless other arrangements have been made in advanced. There will be a $35.00 service fee for any returned checks, and no more checks will be accepted.
6. You can and should discuss any concerns regarding your financial status with your counselor especially if your financial situation should change or improve. Additionally, once per year your fee will be reevaluated and if it is determined you are able to pay more, your fee may be adjusted

II. Confidentiality

1. Communication between you and your counselor is both privileged and confidential. This means that without your written permission the counselor cannot discuss your case orally or in writing.

2. Your counselor has an ethical and legal obligation to break confidentiality under the following circumstances:
- a. If there is a reason to believe there is an occurrence of child, elder or dependent adult abuse or neglect.
 - b. If there is reason to believe that your child or a member of your family has serious intent to harm themselves, someone else, or property by a violent act they may commit.
 - c. If you introduce a family member's emotional condition into a legal proceeding your counselor is subpoenaed or court ordered to give testimony

3. Client Rights and Responsibilities

1. You have the right to end your therapy at any time, for whatever reason, without any obligation except for fees already incurred.
2. You have the right to question any aspect of your treatment with your counselor and to expect that we will work with you to meet your needs for adjunctive or alternative treatment.
3. If you have a family member also seeing Heartwood Family Therapy, please expect there to be privacy between the cases. Cases will not be discussed with the other family member and vice versa.
4. You realize that if you are seen in therapy, sometimes information may be provided to the therapist by family members. Your therapist will not confirm your involvement in therapy, nor release any information about you. However, any information given would be appreciated because it often facilitates a broader view of client's potential challenges.
5. You have the right to expect that your counselor will maintain professional and ethical boundaries by not entering into other personal, financial, or professional relationships with you, which would greatly compromise the therapeutic relationship.
6. Heartwood Family Therapy does not provide psychological testing, acting as a witness in court cases, or report writing of any kind (except for providing evidence of attendance, upon request). You agree that you will not request any of these services from Heartwood Family Therapy.
7. Therapy involves a partnership between therapist and client. Your therapist will contribute knowledge, skills, and a willingness to do her best. The determination of success, however, is largely dependent upon your commitment to your personal growth and care. Your signature below indicates that you have read and understand this information and have received a copy of this consent form and give permission to Heartwood Family Therapy to provide counseling services and that this contract is binding for all future sessions you may have with this practice.

INFORMED CONSENT AGREEMENT

Therapy involves both benefits and risks. Risks include the possibility of experiencing uncomfortable levels of feelings like sadness, guilt, anxiety, anger, loneliness and helplessness. Therapy often requires recalling experiences, some of which may be unpleasant. Therapy may involve making changes that can feel uncomfortable to you and those close to you. Should you notice any negative effects, please tell me immediately. I will make every effort to remedy the situation or provide you with names of other therapists should you prefer a referral. Psychotherapy has been shown to have benefits for those who undertake it. It often leads to reduction of feelings of distress, and to better relationships and resolution of specific problems. The objective is to find more peace, joy, and healthier relationships.

CONFIDENTIALITY:

As part of the counseling process, I am bound by ethical responsibilities to keep confidential the information shared during the sessions and I will not release any information without your written permission. There are important exceptions to the confidentiality of the counseling relationship. I am required by law to reveal certain information under the following circumstances:

- a) Disclosure of serious intent to do harm to self or others
- b) Disclosure of child abuse or my suspicion of child abuse, elder abuse, or dependent adult abuse
- c) If a court of law orders the release of specific information, or if you introduce your emotional condition into a legal proceeding

APPOINTMENTS:

The length of a usual appointment is 50 minutes, except for the initial session, which may take up to an hour. Appointments are usually scheduled weekly and on a regular basis until you have accomplished the majority of your goals and other arrangements are made.

CANCELLATIONS AND MISSED APPOINTMENTS:

Cancellation of appointments must be made at least 48 hours in advance. A credit card number will be taken prior the onset of your counseling. Late cancellations will be charged at the regular hourly fee to your credit card. If you have a true emergency (such as a visit to the ER) your credit card will not be charged.

PAYMENT:

Payment is expected at each session unless other arrangements have been made in advance. You are responsible for payment for all services rendered either by debit card, credit card, check or cash. All checks and credit cards will be paid to Heartwood Family Therapy.

CHECKS/OVERDUE ACCOUNTS:

There is a thirty-five dollar ($35.00) service charge for all checks returned by the bank.

TELEPHONE, TEXT AND EMAIL POLICY:

Generally we ask that clients reserve discussing problems that arise between sessions for the next scheduled appointment time. We encourage you to use resources you have and to reach out to your support system. Unless there is an emergency, our schedules does not permit us to talk on the phone, respond to lengthy texts or answer lengthy emails in between sessions. If you feel the need to text or email information beyond the routine scheduling of appointments, we will wait to discuss the content in our next scheduled session. If telephone calls are necessary for a client emergency, please allow for 24 hours to call you back. If there is a more urgent emergency, please call 911. *Please be advised that my scheduling software will text/email you a generic appointment reminder unless otherwise advised.

INSURANCE:

Some staff accept a number of insurances, please discuss this prior to your appointment. You are responsible for any amount left unpaid by your insurance.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION:

We strongly recommend that each client obtain a thorough physical exam prior to commencing therapy. This is especially important if you are suffering symptoms of anxiety or depression, headaches, and/or weight gain/loss. Symptoms may be biologically caused or may be there for a protective reason.

EMERGENCIES:

Counseling services are available only during scheduled office hours. In a crisis, you may utilize the Sacramento County Mental Health Crisis Service (phone: 916-875-1000)

If you have any questions about Heartwood Family Therapy policies or about psychotherapy, please ask before signing below. Your signature indicates that you have read the policies and agree to enter therapy under these conditions.
